*E*⁷

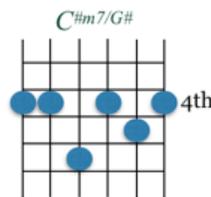

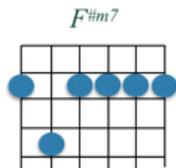

Pulls up in front at the crack of dawn,
In His '59 Caddie with the radio on,
A couple of my friends, at their ease,
Top is down; enjoying the breeze,

*A*⁷

He brings us all together,
Sets our eyes on the prize,

*E*⁷

There's really nothing better,
Puts a twinkle in they eye,

CHORUS

F^{#m}₇

Going for a ride with the wind in our sails,

F

Not a worry or care to darken our door,

C^{#m}₇/G[#]

Watching out for one another,

*E*⁷

Having a good time on this side of the veil.

*E*⁷

Conversation flows; He's a chatty guy,
"It's finished," you know, let's go for a ride,
Start to roll, anticipation on the rise,
Scanning the road for our desire,

*A*⁷

Every time we see another in trouble,

*E*⁷

Caddie slides to a stop, He slides out,

CHORUS

*E*⁷

Hurting people everywhere, lining the roads,
Widows weeping and suffering their loads,
Prisons full of people looking for hope,
Hungry people, thirsty for a drink and a smile,

*A*⁷

Kids without a Mom or Dad,
Reaching for a hand.

*E*⁷

Spend a while with each of them,
Feeding His lambs.

CHORUS

*E*⁷

He doesn't ask much, invites us along,
Watching how He works; join Him in His song,
Wind fills our sails, power of life,
Wafts us where the hurting is rife,

*A*⁷

Lift our hands and learning His moves,

*E*⁷

Contentment. Life in the groove.

CHORUS
