Scripture and History

Revelation 19:11-16 Then I saw the heavens opened, and there was a white horse; its rider was [called] “Faithful and True.” He judges and wages war in righteousness.

His eyes were [like] a fiery flame, and on his head were many diadems. He had a name inscribed that no one knows except himself.

He wore a cloak that had been dipped in* blood, and his name was called the Word of God. The armies of heaven followed him, mounted on white horses and wearing clean white linen. Out of his mouth came a sharp sword to strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod, and he himself will tread out in the wine press* the wine of the fury and wrath of God the almighty.

He has a name written on his cloak and on his thigh, “King of kings and Lord of lords.”

Luke 1:30-31 Then the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus.

Andrew Culverwell is an English Contemporary Christian music artist and songwriter who recorded in the 1970s and 1980s. He is probably best remembered for writing the Christmas song "Come On Ring Those Bells", performed in 1977 by Evie.

Andrew was born on 19 December 1944 in Somerset, England. Initially it was acting rather than music that attracted him and he studied the theater at Italia Conti Stage School in London. That changed at age 16 when he discovered a knack for playing piano by ear and for writing original tunes.

After leaving Italia Conti, Andrew split his time between his day job at a shoe factory and travel with Contemporary Christian Music group The Four Kingsmen. He was with the group for four years before leaving to do solo concerts.

British record producer Norrie Paramor discovered Culverwell and signed him to Polydor Records. Polydor released his first album Where is the Love.

In 1973, Andre Crouch introduced Culverwell to Hal Spencer, president of Manna Records. He would go on to record Andrew and Born Again for the label.

As of 2016, it is reported that he is the pastor of the Pampano Christian Bible Fellowship, a church which evidently has meetings on Saturday night.
