 Let every kindred, ev-ery tribe on this terres - - -trial ball,

A7 D G6 A D F#m E A
 To Him all majesty ascribe, and crown Him Lord of all.

A7 D G6 A D G D A7 D
 To Him all majesty ascribe, and crown Him Lord of all.

History

Philippians 2:9-11 Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

John 1:49 Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God;* you are the King of Israel.”

"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" is often called the "National Anthem of Christendom. The lyrics, written by Edward Perronet while he served as a missionary in India, first appeared in the November, 1779 issue of the Gospel Magazine, which was edited by the renowned author of "Rock of Ages" Augustus Toplady. The text has been translated into almost every (if not every) language in which Christianity is known. The best-known tunes used for the hymn are "Coronation" and "Miles Lane", with "Diadem" the favored one in Australia, but there are a number of others. "Diadem" is also the most favored tune sung as a choir number.

The Unitarians could not resist its appeal, leading them to heavily alter the hymn for their songbook as, "All Hail the Power of Truth to Save from Error's Binding Thrall."

Other Verses

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget the wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at His feet, and crown Him Lord of all.
Go spread your trophies at His feet, and crown Him Lord of all.
Let highborn seraphs tune the lyre, and as they tune it, fall

Before His face Who tunes their choir, and crown Him Lord of all.
Before His face Who tunes their choir, and crown Him Lord of all.
Crown Him, ye morning stars of light, who fixed this floating ball;
Now hail the strength of Israel's might, and crown Him Lord of all.
