

Sanctuary

Words and Music by John Thompson & Randy Scruggs © 1992 all rights reserved
Sing along with As You Go @ https://static.wixstatic.com/mp3/055bba_dd7af1dcea0f44c08c4eb0c60e81a8ef.m4a

D⁵/A Em7 D A
Lord pre - pare me to be a sanctuary,

A G Em7 D-Dsus4/A-A

Pure and holy, tried and true;

F#m Em/A D A

With thanksgiving, I'll be a living,

A G Em7 F#m Em/A D

Sanctuary for You.

Scripture & History

1st Corinthians 3:16 Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

“Sanctuary” was written by John W. Thompson and Randy Scruggs.

John W. Thompson

Internet research yields precious little about John Thompson.

Randy Lynn Scruggs (born August 3, 1953 in Nashville, Tennessee) is a music producer, songwriter and guitarist. He made his first recording at the age of 13. He has won a Grammy

Randy Scruggs

Award and was twice named "Musician of the Year" at the Country Music Association Awards. He is the middle son of Earl Scruggs.

hymnary.org & Wikipedia

Gospel, Psalms & Revelation as you go