

Love Still Remains

Words and Music by Kate Wolf © 1981 all rights reserved

D G
I went home to a place I swore I'd never see again;
A
Lord, it's different now,
D
There's hardly anything that hasn't changed.
D D7 G
And the friends I've know have grown and moved away;
A A7 D
But the love I felt for you still remains.

CHORUS

A G
It remains. It blows down the dusty streets,
Em A
And rides the falling rain,
D D7 G Em
And rolls like a tumbleweed out on the open range.
A A7 D
The love I felt for you still remains.

D G
I walked down past the buildings standing empty and unused,
A
Where you asked me one more time if I'd stay,
D
And then you cried when I refused.
D D7 G
That was long ago. I moved away and I changed my name;
A A7 D
But the love I felt for you still remains.

CHORUS

E A
I could say that I always thought you'd be there when I came,
B E
But you wanted more and I could say the same.
E A
Now I'm leaving like the whistle on a lonesome boxcar train;
B E
But the love I felt for you still remains.....

History

“There was a humanity in her singing, a generosity of spirit that never failed to move me. With Kate, the message was always — always — love. I never met a warmer-hearted person than Kate Wolf — ever.”

— Tom Paxton

Kate Wolf (born Kathryn Louise Allen, January 27, 1942 – December 10, 1986) was an American folk singer and songwriter. Though her career was relatively short, she had a significant impact on the folk music scene, and many musicians continue to cover her songs. Her best-known compositions include "Here in California," "Love Still Remains," "Across the Great Divide," "Unfinished Life," and "Give Yourself to Love."

Born in San Francisco, she started her music career in the band Wildwood Flower before recording ten records as a solo artist.
