

Yellow Submarine

Words & Music by The Beatles © 1969 all rights reserved.

A D G
In the town where I was born,
A D
Lived a man who sailed to sea.
D G
And he told us of his life,
A D
In the land of submarines.

A D G
So we sailed up to the sun,
A D
Till we found the sea of green.
D G
And we lived beneath the waves,
A D
In our yellow submarine.

CHORUS

G D
We all live in a yellow submarine;
D G
Yellow submarine, yellow submarine.
G D
We all live in a yellow submarine;
D G
Yellow submarine, yellow submarine.

A D G
And our friends are all on board;
A D
Many more of them live next door.
D G
And the band begins to play:
G G G G G

CHORUS

A D G
As we live a life of ease,
A D
Everyone of us has all we need.
D G
Sky of blue and sea of green;
A D
In our yellow submarine.

CHORUS

History

The Yellow Submarine album arose from contractual obligations for the Beatles to supply new songs to the soundtrack to United Artists' animated film Yellow Submarine. Having recently completed their album Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band in April 1967, the group showed minimal enthusiasm for the project. Along with the music for their Magical Mystery Tour TV film, the Yellow Submarine soundtrack was part of a period that author Ian MacDonald later described as the band's "regime of continuous low-intensity recording ... it had a workaday quality about it – an intrinsic lack of tension which was bound to colour the resulting material."

It is the tenth studio album by the Beatles, released on 13 January 1969 in the United States and on 17 January 1969 in the United Kingdom.
